

20th March, 2020

Dear Parishioners,

Weekend Masses have been suspended in the Parish of Burleigh Heads effective immediately.

Mass will be celebrated in the absence of a congregation.

Parishioners are welcome to gather this weekend for a blessing and to receive a copy of the newsletter at the usual Mass you would normally attend on the weekend.

The Churches will be open for one hour at this time, for private prayer. No more than 100 people in attendance.

Weekday Masses will continue but no more than 100 people in attendance.

Please be mindful of hygiene and physical distancing protocols.
