SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES 29 June 2025

Year C/1

This Week's Readings: Acts 3:1-10; Gal 1:11-20; Jn 21:15-19
Next Week's Readings: Is 66:10-14; Gal 6:14-18; Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

We celebrate the great Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, the two towering figures who shaped the early Church. Though very different in background and personality, both men were called, transformed, and sent by Christ to proclaim the Gospel to the world. They stand together as twin pillars of faith, courage, and mission.

Peter, the fisherman from Galilee, was chosen by Jesus to be the rock on which the Church would be built. His journey was not perfect. He misunderstood Jesus, faltered in faith, and even denied knowing Him. Yet Peter's deep love for the Lord, his repentance, and his bold leadership reminds us that God does not call the qualified, but He qualifies the called. Peter teaches us the power of forgiveness, humility, and perseverance in following Christ.

Paul, once a fierce persecutor of Christians, encountered Christ on the road to Damascus and became the apostle to the Gentiles. His life was radically changed by grace, and he spent the rest of it tirelessly preaching the Gospel across the ancient world. His letters, full of passion and deep theology, continue to inspire and challenge us today.

For us modern-day disciples, the lives of Peter and Paul offer both comfort and challenge. Like Peter, we may feel unworthy or stumble in faith, but we are still called to lead, to love, and to serve. Like Paul, we may carry burdens of our past, but through God's grace we can be renewed and sent forth as messengers of hope.

In a world that often discourages faith, Saints Peter and Paul urge us to stand firm, to speak boldly, and to live joyfully in Christ. They remind us that the Church is built not on perfection, but on faith, trust, and mission.

May we, like Peter and Paul, become fearless witnesses, willing to give our lives, however ordinary—for the extraordinary mission of the Gospel.

Saints Peter and Paul, pray for us!

GATHERING

Here in this place, new light is streaming,
now is the darkness, vanished away;
see, in this space, our fears and our dreamings,
brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in, the lost and forsaken,
gather us in, the blind and the lame;
call to us now, and we shall awaken,
we shall arise at the sound of our name.

We are the young, our lives are a myst'ry;
we are the old who yearn for your face;
we have been sung throughout all of hist'ry,
called to be light to the whole human race.
Gather us in, the rich and the haughty,
gather us in, the proud and the strong;
give us a heart so meek and so lowly,
give us the courage to enter the song.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The precepts of the Lord give joy, joy to the heart.

COMMUNION HYMN

*We are many parts,
we are all one body,
and the gifts we have we are given to share,
may the Spirit of Love make us One indeed,
One, the Love that we share,
One, our Hope in despair,
One, the Cross that we bear.*

God of all, we look to you,
we would be your servants true,
let us be your love to all the world. (Refrain)

So my pain is pain for you,
in your joy is my joy, too,
all is brought together in the Lord. (Refrain)

All you seekers great and small,
seek the greatest gift of all,
if you love, then you will know the Lord. (Refrain)
