Year B/2

This Week's Readings: Wis 1:13-15, 2:23-24; 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15, Mk 5:21-24, 35-43
Next Week's Readings: Ezek 2:2-5; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Mk 6:1-6

"FAITH THAT WAS REWARDED"

Today's Gospel contains what biblical scholars often call, "The Markan sandwich". One story is sandwiched between the beginning and end of another. This is an unusual combination of two miracle stories. The healing story of the woman with a chronic bleeding disease (Mk. 5: 25-34) is sandwiched within the story of the restoration of life of Jairus' daughter (Mk. 5: 21-24, 35-41). Jesus performed these miracles as rewards for the trusting faith of Jairus and the woman.

The stories have several common features. Jairus' daughter is 12 years old, and the woman had been suffering from haemorrhage for 12 years. Both the woman and the little girl are healed by faith i.e., the faith of the woman and the faith of Jairus. In accordance with Jewish prescriptions both the woman and the daughter of Jairus are unclean in their own conditions namely bleeding (Lev. 15:25) and death (Nm. 19:13). Still, touching becomes part of both healing miracles, where the woman touches the fringe of Jesus' cloak and Jesus touches the dead girl by taking her by hand. Thus, faith means touching God and being touched by the power of God.

Faith experience of Jairus: Jairus being one of the synagogue leaders was supposed to be well-respected man in the local Jewish community. He probably shared in the Pharisees' prejudice that Jesus was a heretic preacher to be avoided.

Further, the urgency of his need and the helplessness of the situation prompted him to humble himself to seek the help of Jesus. The raising of his daughter from death leads him to deep faith experience in Jesus.

Faith experience of the woman: The woman seems to have come to Jesus as a last resort, after trying every other cure known in her day. Probably, she decided to touch the tassels of Jesus' garment secretly in the context of the Mosaic Law that declared ritually unclean anyone with a chronic bleeding disease, and anybody who contacted the unclean person as well and it shut them off from the worship of God and the fellowship with others. (Lev 15:25-27). The question of Jesus, "Who touched my clothes?" is ironic as the crowd around him was pressing him from around. The touch of the woman was different from that of the crowd. While the crowd was touching Jesus physically the woman was touching him with faith and Jesus felt the difference in touching with faith. Her Faith in the healing power of Jesus was so strong that she risked breaking all the social rules to seek what she believed he could do for her. Jesus' affectionate call 'daughter' is an expression of the establishment of a personal relationship with Jesus as a member of Jesus' eschatological family and she was also fully restored to the normal religious and social life.

Conclusion: The primary condition for the effectiveness of our prayer is our Faith in the goodness and mercy of God. Further, it helps us to establish a personal relation with God. Without the faith of Jairus and the woman there would not have been miracles. It means wherever the faith of a human being and mercy of God converge miracles effect. Faith can, not only move mountains or storms of life (last week's theme), but it also moves the compassionate heart of God! Amen.

SYNOD24 PRAYER

Creator Spirit, whose breath of life makes all things new.

We gather around Your table of communion,
as many parts of one body,
grounded in the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We open our minds and hearts,
so we can be nourished and enlivened by Your presence, ready to be the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We make space for the many stories of hurt, exclusion and silence of those within, and on the very edges of our communities, so we may be in service of the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

As your breath of life flows in us and through us,
may we be a vessel for Your bold creativity
so we may be the hands and feet of the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We ask this in the name of the Risen Christ,
Amen.

ANNUAL PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION
30 June 2024

This Sunday we will have a leaving collection for Peter's Pence - the charitable works of the Holy Father. As you leave please find a collection plate and make your donation. Peter's Pence is the name given to the financial support offered by the faithful to the Holy Father as a sign of their sharing in the concern of the Successor of Peter for the many different needs of the Universal Church and for the relief of those most in need. "You are aware of the growing needs of the apostolate, the requirements of the ecclesial communities, especially in mission countries, and the requests for aid that come from peoples, individuals and families in precarious conditions. Many expect the Apostolic See to give them the support they often fail to find elsewhere. In this perspective the Peter's Pence Collection is a true and proper participation in the work of evangelization, especially if one considers the meaning and importance of concretely sharing in the concerns of the universal Church" (Pope John Paul II to the St Peter's Circle, 28 February 2003).

PARISH LUNCHEON – will be held on Thursday 4th July, 2024 at 11.30am at the Burleigh Heads Sports Club. Please bring a friend and join us for fellowship, lucky door prizes, cake and celebrating birthdays.

COMMUNION HYMN

Love is his word, love is his way,

living and dying, rising again.
Love, only love, is his way.

Richer than gold is the love of my Lord;
better than splendour and wealth.

bread for our strength, wine for our joy.
'This is my body, this is my blood'.
Love, only love, is his sign. (Refrain)

Love is his news, love is his name,
we are his own, chosen and called,
sisters and brothers, cousins and kin,
Love, only love, is his name. (Refrain)

Love is his law, love is his word:
love of the Lord, Father and Word,
love of the Spirit, God ever one.
Love, only love, is his word. (Refrain)

Could the Lord forget his love?
Though a mother forsake her child,
he will not abandon you. (Refrain)
